

Aamir Mirza

Co-founder, Partner

With more than 22 years of experience, 15 years in UAE. He has extensive experience in operations, management and business development in Middle East and African markets. Aamir Mirza has a strong track record of driving growth and managing multi-functional, diversified teams and companies. He also has expertise in launching products in new markets, training corporate sales teams and managing high-profile customers. He holds a bachelor's degree in Economics with Honours and an MBA. His broad scope of skills includes planning for enterprise, development of strategic partnerships, sales management, project execution/delivery, problem solving and achieving results.